The Assumption

On November 1st 1950, Pope Pius XII declared that Mary, the Mother of Jesus, when she had completed the course of her natural life, was taken (assumed) body and soul into heaven. This was a belief that dates back to the very early times in the Church. The Doctrine of the Assumption was declared as an Infallible teaching after every Bishop in the world was asked to consult and reply if they believed this should happen and 99% agreed.

This Wednesday 15th August we celebrate the Holy Day of the Assumption which is an opportunity to celebrate the importance of Mary in our faith. This importance is highlighted in the way she, and she alone, was taken to God without any corruption to her as a result of death.
