World Communications Day

This weekend we mark World Communications Day. This is the 52nd year of remembering the importance of communication in our lives. This year's message from Pope Francis is entitled 'Fake news and journalism for peace'.

The Pope reflects on what fake news is and encourages a positive journalism for the benefit of all humanity. He invites everyone to promote a journalism of peace and ends with a prayer which draws inspiration from a Franciscan prayer. To read this message please, pick up a copy from the back of church beside the newsletters.
